About the Organizer	China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (China Chamber of International Commerce) Training Center (also referred to as CCPIT Training Center) is a directly subordinate educational institution under the CCPIT. Established in 2006, its core mandate includes designing and implementing human resources development programs, particularly official training workshops and seminar under the China Aid training framework, delivered through in-person, online, and overseas. CCPIT is the largest foreign trade and investment industry promotion organization in China, and has long been committed to promoting foreign trade, two-way investment and economic and technological cooperation, and is an important bridge and platform for promoting exchanges and cooperation between the domestic and foreign economic and trade communities. CCPIT (China Chamber of International Commerce) is a foreign-related chamber of commerce with the largest number of membership companies and the greatest international influence in China, with more than 350,000 member enterprises. After more than 70 years of development, CCPIT has set up more than 800 local sub-councils, industrial sub-councils within China, set up more than 30 overseas representative offices, participated in the work of many international organizations on behalf of China's economic and trade circles, established long-term cooperative relations with the economic and trade circles of almost all countries and regions. We formed a trade and investment promotion system covering the whole world, and fostered service brands such as conference and exhibition, commercial and legal services, economic and trade arbitration, intellectual property rights and so on. It has also fostered service brands such as conference and exhibition, commercial law, economic and trade arbitration, and intellectual property rights. Building on the resources of CCPIT and CCOIC, and through collaborations with leading Chinese think tanks, research institutes, and universities, the CCPIT Training Center mobilizes top-tier experts and scholars to deliver intellectual support for international capacity-building initiatives. It has created high-quality training programs in trade and investment, international economic cooperation, governance, and commercial law, achieving significant recognition for their impact. Since 2015, the CCPIT Training Center has closely collaborated with the Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO) under the Ministry of Commerce to implement the Three Major Global Initiatives, with a focus on the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI). By the end of 2024, it has organized 82 seminars for chambers of commerce and industry from BRI Partner Countries, benefiting over 2,500 professionals from developing countries worldwide. Through specialized lecture, case studies, field visits, exchange programs, and cultural activities in areas such as trade rules, investment cooperation, digital transformation, and international industrial collaboration, CCPIT Training Center has effectively strengthened the capacity of participants and promoted diversified exchanges among nations. Guided by Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, the CCPIT Training Center will continue to uphold the vision of a community with a shared future for mankind, the principles of equity and mutual benefit, and the spirit of sincerity, real results, affinity, and good faith. By advancing major initiatives such as the BRI and the Global

	Development Initiative (GDI), and sharing China's experiences and solutions, the Center remains committed to supporting developing countries in accelerating their development.
