About the Organizer	China International Economic Consultants Co., Ltd. (CIEC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of CITIC Group, was established in 1981 as China's first professional consulting company following the reform and opening-up. It was founded by former Chinese Vice President Mr. Rong Yiren, Mr. Jing Shuping, and other senior entrepreneurs. Leveraging the comprehensive service capabilities of CITIC Group, CIEC has successfully organized 65 training sessions on "China's Economic and Trade Development Experience," training nearly 1,000 senior and mid-level officials and management personnel from multiple countries across Europe, Africa, and Asia, receiving widespread acclaim. In 2024, under the foreign aid initiative of China's Ministry of Commerce, CIEC successfully conducted 13 training programs, all of which received highly positive feedback. With the advancement of China's "Belt and Road" Initiative, countries along the route are increasingly seeking cooperation in economic, trade, technological, and cultural exchanges, as well as talent development. As a centrally administered enterprise, CITIC Group actively responds to President Xi Jinping's initiative and is fully committed to supporting the "Belt and Road" Initiative. At present, CIEC prioritizes collaboration within the framework of this initiative, capitalizing on its expertise in economic and financial sectors to foster international cooperation and exchange through training programs tailored for officials from developing countries.
