

INTERNATIONAL LAW OF THE SEA

10 TO 14 NOVEMBER 2025

Sponsored by the

SINGAPORE COOPERATION PROGRAMME

under the

TRAINING AWARD

Singapore Cooperation Programme

Singapore has provided technical assistance to other developing countries since the 1960s. As a country whose only resource is its people, Singapore believes that human resource development is vital for economic and social progress. Singapore itself has benefited from training provided by other countries and international organisations.

In 1992, the Singapore Cooperation Programme (SCP) was established to bring together under one framework the various technical assistance programmes offered by Singapore. Through the SCP, the range and number of training programmes were increased to share Singapore's development experience with other developing countries.

To date, over 150,000 officials from more than 180 countries, territories, and intergovernmental organisations have participated in our courses and study visits. The SCP is managed by the Technical Cooperation Directorate of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Singapore.

Course Objectives

This course will focus on the 1982 UN Convention on the Law of the Sea, cover the rights and obligations of states in the various maritime zones, as well as the role of key international organisations related to the Law of the Sea.

Synopsis

Topics to be covered include:

- Overview of international law and Law of the Sea
- Maritime boundary delimitation and economic zones
- UNCLOS dispute settlement mechanisms
- Maritime scientific research
- Emerging topics affecting UNCLOS

Methodology

This course will be conducted in-person in Singapore and in a variety of formats which may include, but not limited to, seminar-style sharing sessions, site visits, and group discussions.
