About the Organizer	The University of International Business and Economics (UIBE), founded in 1951, is a national key university under the leadership of the Ministry of Education. UIBE was among the first batch of higher education institutions to be listed in "Project 211" and was among the first group of China's universities to be included in the "Double First-Class" policy, and one of the most sought-after academic institutions in China and has become an important base of cultivating professional intellectuals in economy and trade and conducting scientific research. UIBE is composed of over 20 teaching and research institutions including Institute of WTO, Institute of International Business, School of International Trade and Economics, School of Business, etc. And over 10 administrative organs including Department of International Relations, etc. UIBE has over 1600 faculty and staffs, including over 1000 teaching and research faculty with 110 professors, 290 associate professors and over 30 foreign experts. Currently UIBE has exchange programs with over 200 universities and institutes from more than 40 countries and regions around the world. UIBE has been undertaking the China-Aid Foreign Official Training Programs for many years. Since 2000, under the authorizing of the Ministry of Commerce, UIBE have undertaken more than 100 bilateral and multilateral official training programs, with over 2600 participants. The training fields mainly include economy and trade, finance, investment, taxation, customs, corporate management, law, diplomacy, etc. The training languages are English, French, Russian, Spanish, Portuguese, etc. All the seminars have achieved good results. UIBE has significant advantages in foreign language majors and is one of the 15 national key foreign language universities.
Training content	This seminar mainly includes three parts: lectures, visits and cultural experiences. The content of the lectures mainly includes: The lectures will cover topics including China's national conditions, Xi Jinping Thought on Governance, trade facilitation in China Customs, China Customs' IT application, anti-smuggling efforts and international law enforcement cooperation, intellectual property protection, China's tariff system, digital economy development and innovation, and China's poverty alleviation practices. The courses will be delivered by scholars and government officials from institutions such as the University of International Business and Economics and the General Administration of Customs. Field Visits: Participants will conduct on-site inspections in Beijing and Shenzhen, including a visit to Shenzhen Customs for discussions with Chinese customs counterparts. These visits aim to provide an in-depth understanding of China's achievements in customs administration, international cooperation, the digital economy, and the development of new quality productive forces. Based on these insights, discussions will explore how countries can deepen customs and economic cooperation in the new era. Cultural Experiences: The program will arrange rich cultural activities to help participants better understand Chinese history and culture. The city for visiting may be adjusted according to the actual situation.
