About the	The Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO) is an educational and training

Organizer	institution directly under the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China. Established in 1980, AIBO is located in Changping District, Beijing, about 30 kilometers from Beijing Capital International Airport. It boasts comprehensive infrastructure to provide services such as accommodation, catering, training and meetings for trainees. One of the main responsibilities of AIBO is to implement human resources development and cooperation projects, especially training courses for officials. The Academy serves as the main base for China's foreign aid training, offering both off-line and on-line training in China and overseas. Backed by the Ministry of Commerce and in close cooperation with China's top think tanks, research institutes and universities, AIBO brings together a large number of China's top experts and scholars to provide intellectual support for foreign aid training. It has developed a number of high-quality foreign aid training projects in the fields of trade and investment, international economic cooperation, governance and public management, which have proved to be fruitful. Since 1998, AIBO has successfully held over 2,500 training sessions for officials from developing countries (including 137 ministerial seminars), benefiting nearly 75,000 trainees from other developing countries around the world. AIBO will adhere to the guidance of Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, and take the important concepts, including a community with a shared future for mankind, pursuing the greater good and shared interests, and sincerity, real results, amity, good faith, mutual benefit and inclusiveness, as strategic guidance and fundamental principles to be followed. It will facilitate the joint efforts in implementing major initiatives such as the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) and the Global Development Initiative (GDI), and continue to help developing countries accelerate their development by sharing China's experience and programs.
About the Project	Background: South-South cooperation serves as an important means for developing countries to support each other, enhance international economic collaboration, and achieve sustainable development goals. It plays a significant role in advancing the social and economic development of developing countries. As the largest developing country globally, China has always paid close attention to and supported Global South countries in improving livelihoods and pursuing development. China is a staunch advocate of South-South cooperation, not only offering foreign aid to support economic development but also actively engaging with international organizations in multilateral cooperation to promote the achievement of sustainable development goals and bring greater benefits to people in developing countries. Purpose: Through seminar exchanges and discussions, the aim is to introduce officials in the training programs to China's practices in South-South cooperation, especially the concepts and methods of foreign aid under the framework of South-South cooperation. It also seeks to work with officials from various countries to explore how best to leverage South-South cooperation and development aid in the new context for achieving independent economic and social development. Simultaneously, it aims to provide a platform for collaborations and exchanges with developing countries, laying the groundwork for enhancing the effectiveness of South-South cooperation and deepening economic, trade, and investment partnerships between China and developing countries. Content: The seminar lectures will primarily focus on topics such as an overview of China's national conditions and Chinese-style modernization, the philosophy and practice of governance by

	Chinese leaders, the Belt and Road Initiative and the Global Development Initiative, new trends in South-South cooperation, the history and case studies of China's South-South cooperation, China's international development cooperation in the new era, and the management of China's turnkey aid projects and technical cooperation. Methods: Invite Chinese officials, experts and scholars in relevant fields to give lectures on special topics; organize seminars and exchanges between participants and experts, and among participants; visit related departments in Beijing and other cities for field study. (The above is the preliminary schedule, which may be adjusted according to the actual situation, and the final version will be provided upon arrival in China.)
Notes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Please prepare your passport, Chinese visa and third-party transit country visa (if necessary) before coming to China. 2. If you cannot depart on time due to special circumstances, or if there is a flight delay during the transfer, please contact the Chinese embassy or the organizer in time and inform the staff of the new flight No. and time of arrival in Beijing so that the staff can arrange pick-up for you. 3. In principle, it is not allowed to change the air tickets to China. If you really need to do so, please contact the Chinese embassy and follow the procedures to change your ticket. If you change the air ticket without consent, the organizer will report it to the Chinese embassy and the costs and responsibilities therefore incurred shall be borne by yourself. 4. After claiming your luggage, please wait patiently at the international arrival exit (or domestic arrival exit) and the staff will pick you up with a pick-up board with your name on it. If you wait more than 15 minutes, please call the organizer immediately. 5. In case of lost luggage to be registered with the airline, please first communicate with the organizer to confirm the luggage delivery location and then fill in the registration form. 6.
