About the Organizer	The Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO) is an educational and training institution directly under the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China. Established

	in 1980, AIBO is located in Changping District, Beijing, about 30 kilometers from Beijing Capital International Airport. It boasts comprehensive infrastructure to provide services such as accommodation, catering, training and meetings for trainees. One of the main responsibilities of AIBO is to implement human resources development and cooperation projects, especially training courses for officials. The Academy serves as the main base for China's foreign aid training, offering both off-line and on-line training in China and overseas. Backed by the Ministry of Commerce and in close cooperation with China's top think tanks, research institutes and universities, AIBO brings together a large number of China's top experts and scholars to provide intellectual support for foreign aid training. It has developed a number of high-quality foreign aid training projects in the fields of trade and investment, international economic cooperation, governance and public management, which have proved to be fruitful. Since 1998, AIBO has successfully held over 2,500 training sessions for officials from developing countries (including 137 ministerial seminars), benefiting nearly 75,000 trainees from other developing countries around the world. AIBO will adhere to the guidance of Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, and take the important concepts, including a community with a shared future for mankind, pursuing the greater good and shared interests, and sincerity, real results, amity, good faith, mutual benefit and inclusiveness, as strategic guidance and fundamental principles to be followed. It will facilitate the joint efforts in implementing major initiatives such as the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) and the Global Development Initiative (GDI), and continue to help developing countries accelerate their development by sharing China's experience and programs.
About the Project	Background: As a new round of scientific and technological revolution and industrial transformation gains momentum around the world, the competition in overall national strength has reached unprecedented breadth and depth. These new developments pose significant challenges to judicial systems across all countries and also put forward new requirements for deepening cooperation and building consensus among judicial authorities. In this connection, strengthening judicial capacity building of BRI partner countries, offering more robust legal and institutional safeguards for the development of various countries, and applying rule-of-law thinking and approaches to domestic and international affairs are of great significance for advancing the common development and prosperity of people worldwide and jointly building a community with a shared future for mankind. Purpose: The seminar aims to share China's judicial and talent development practices, support the judicial capacity building of BRI partner countries, and disseminate China's rule-of-law experience. It also seeks to build an international platform for judicial exchanges to facilitate judicial cooperation among BRI partner countries, better utilize and develop wisdom resources worldwide, implement the Global Development Initiative, advance the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, and foster a more fair and equitable international order and legal system. Content: The seminar will give lectures mainly on topics such as overview of China's national conditions, the Chinese path to modernization, Chinese leaders' philosophy on state governance, China's law-based governance under the guidance of Xi Jinping Thought on the Rule of Law, international law and governance, analysis of civil and commercial dispute resolution mechanisms under the Belt and Road Initiative, international civil and commercial judicial assistance: from the perspective of China's developments in legislation and judiciary, China's anti-monopoly law enforcement in the digital economy era: achievements, challenges and international cooperation, an overview of international commercial arbitration, China's Civil Code, China's judicial system, China's pilot free trade zone system, and summary on foreign-related civil and commercial trials in China, etc. Methods: Invite Chinese officials, experts and scholars in the judicial field to give lectures on specific topics; organize discussions and exchanges between participants and experts, and among participants; organize participants to learn about the rule of law in Beijing and Chongqing and pay field visits to courts, procuratorates, pilot free trade zones, and New Land-Sea Corridor Operation Co., Ltd. (The above is based on the preliminary schedule, and may be adjusted according to the actual

	situation. The final version will be provided upon arrival in China.)
Notes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Please prepare your passport, Chinese visa and third-party transit country visa (if necessary) before coming to China. 2. If you cannot depart on time due to special circumstances, or if there is a flight delay during the transfer, please contact the Chinese embassy or the organizer in time and inform the staff of the new flight No. and time of arrival in Beijing so that the staff can arrange pick-up for you. 3. In principle, it is not allowed to change the air tickets to China. If you really need to do so, please contact the Chinese embassy and follow the procedures to change your ticket. If you change the air ticket without consent, the organizer will report it to the Chinese embassy and the costs and responsibilities therefore incurred shall be borne by yourself. 4. After claiming your luggage, please wait patiently at the international arrival exit (or domestic arrival exit) and the staff will pick you up with a pick-up board with your name on it. If you wait more than 15 minutes, please call the organizer immediately. 5. In case of lost luggage to be registered with the airline, please first communicate with the organizer to confirm the luggage delivery location and then fill in the registration form. 6.
