About the Organizer	The Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO) is an educational and training institution directly under the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China. Established in 1980, AIBO is located in Changping District, Beijing, about 30 kilometers from Beijing Capital International Airport. It boasts comprehensive infrastructure to provide services such as accommodation, catering, training and meetings for trainees. One of the main responsibilities of AIBO is to implement human resources development and cooperation projects, especially training courses for officials. The Academy serves as the main base for China's foreign aid training, offering both off-line and on-line training in China and overseas. Backed by the Ministry of Commerce and in close cooperation with China's top think tanks, research institutes and universities, AIBO brings together a large number of China's top experts and scholars to provide intellectual support for foreign aid training. It has developed a number of high-quality foreign aid training projects in the fields of trade and investment, international economic cooperation, governance and public management, which have proved to be fruitful. Since 1998, AIBO has successfully held over 2,500 training sessions for officials from developing countries (including 147 ministerial seminars), benefiting about 84,000 participants from other developing countries around the world. AIBO will adhere to the guidance of Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, and take the important concepts, including a community with a shared future for mankind, pursuing the greater good and shared interests, and sincerity, real results, amity, good faith, mutual benefit and inclusiveness, as strategic guidance and fundamental principles to be followed. It will facilitate the joint efforts in implementing major initiatives such as the Belt and Road Initiative and the Global Development Initiative, and continue to help developing countries accelerate their development by sharing China's experience and programs.

About the Seminar	Background: China has always been a committed participant and active contributor to international cooperation in the field of digital economy and green development. Together with more than 30 countries, China launched the Initiative on International Trade and Economic Cooperation Framework for Digital Economy and Green Development. Using trade and investment as key linkages, the initiative promotes practical international cooperation in the digital economy and green development. To date, the number of countries participating in this initiative has expanded to 50. China continues to advance cooperation in areas such as capacity building in digital and green sectors, policy dialogue, project matchmaking, and practical collaboration among enterprises. These efforts aim to ensure the effective implementation of the initiative and deliver tangible cooperation outcomes for all parties, while contributing to the implementation of the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the Global Development Initiative. Purpose: China has been actively participating in international cooperation in the fields of digital economy and green development, and is willing to share its development experience in these fields. The seminar aims to encourage all participants to strengthen practical cooperation, achieve shared progress in the digital and green sectors, and collaborate with all stakeholders to implement the Initiative. We welcome all parties to propose cooperation ideas and promote the sharing of development dividends in the fields of digital economy and green development. Content: The topics of the seminar will mainly cover an overview of China's national conditions and Chinese modernization, the governance philosophies of Chinese leaders, the Global Development Initiative and the call for building a community with a shared future for mankind, digital economy and the digital transformation of traditional enterprises, future prospects and industrial opportunities of the digital economy, and China's green development and related economic and trade cooperations. Method: Invite experts in relevant fields to give lectures on specific topics; organize discussions and exchanges between participants and experts, and among participants; and organize field visits and exchanges for participants in relevant institutions and enterprises in Beijing and other cities. (The above is based on the preliminary schedule, and may be adjusted according to the actual situation. The final version will be provided upon arrival in China.)
Notes	1. Please prepare your passport, Chinese visa and third-party transit country visa (if necessary) before coming to China.

2. If you cannot depart on time due to special circumstances, or if there is a flight delay during the transfer, please contact the Chinese embassy or the organizer in time and inform the staff of the new flight No. and time of arrival in Beijing so that the staff can arrange pick-up for you.

3. In principle, it is not allowed to change the air tickets to China. If you really need to do so, please contact the Chinese embassy and follow the procedures to change your ticket. If you change the air ticket without consent, the organizer will report it to the Chinese embassy and the costs and responsibilities therefore incurred shall be borne by yourself.

4. After picking up the luggage, please wait patiently at the international arrival exit (or domestic arrival exit) and the organizer will pick you up with a pick-up board with your name on it. If waiting for more than 15 minutes, you can communicate with the organizer by phone.

5. In case of lost baggage, you need to register the loss procedure with the airline. Please first communicate with the organizer to confirm the baggage delivery location and then fill in the registration form.

6. Dress code: Participants should pay attention to the weather conditions during the seminar and bring appropriate clothes. Participants should wear formal clothes (national costumes are also acceptable) for important activities in the seminar.
